CHRISTMAS

DEAR BROTHER KNIGHTS BY BUD JOOS-GRAND KNIGHT

A SURPRISE!

Are you having some unexpected surprises since the Twin Towers Event? Terri and I were so surprised when we received a letter from a foreign exchange student that stayed with us for one year when our teenagers were in high school. Wolfram was our second exchange student and the year was disappointing. Wolfram was so different from our first exchange student Pierre who was always smiling and was excited about everything. Wolfram on the other hand was the opposite. After he went back home to Germany we only heard from him once or twice and then only at holiday time.

When I returned home from running errands yesterday Terri was all smiles and said I was in for a big surprise that came in the mail. It was a letter from Wolfram and he wanted to know how we were well and happy. He lives in Dusseldorf, Germany. He told us that at first they could not believe it was true. Then for the next two weeks they couldn't do much else that listen to the news.

We were flabbergasted! Isn't it amazing that after 25 years a tragedy like that would give him the impetus to find us. You see we have moved to Kansas, Texas, and Philadelphia since we last heard from him. He found our address in the white pages on the Internet. We have thought about Wolfram many times and wondered how he was doing and we also believed that we would never hear from again. We also often wondered if we could have made Wolfram happier if we tried harder.

It gave me a big boost in my morale to know that this letter showed that this country is not fighting the forces of evil alone.

This letter brought a message about faith. In times of uncertainty and when we seem to be lost, there is always something that boost your spirits. Many times the words of encouragement will come from someone that you least expect.

ALWAYS KEEP THE FAITH!

Your Grand Knight,
Bud Joos

Pray the Rosary to End Terrorism, Pope Pleads

John Paul II called for the recitation of the rosary during the month of October for peace and the rejection of violence.

"Given the present international context, I appeal to all — individuals, families and communities — to pray the rosary for peace, if possible daily, so that the world will be preserved from the dreadful scourge of terrorism," the Pontiff said when he appeared at the window of his study to address the pilgrims gathered below in St. Peter's Square.

The Holy Father reminded his listeners that October is the month when the Church venerates Mary as "Queen of the Holy Rosary."

"The terrible tragedy of last Sept. 11 will be remembered as a dark day in the history of humanity," he said. "In the face of this, the Church intends to be faithful to her prophetic charism and reminds all men of their duty to build a future of peace for the human family. "Of course, peace is not separate from justice, but the latter must always be carried out with mercy and love."

John Paul II added: "Jews, Christians and Muslims adore the One God. Therefore, the three religions have the vocation to unity and peace. May God grant the faithful of the Church to be in the front line in the search for justice, in the rejection of violence, and in the commitment to be agents of peace.

"May the Virgin Mary, Queen of Peace, intercede for the whole of humanity, so that hatred and death will never have the last word!"

On Saturday, at the end of his stay in the summer papal residence of Castel Gandolfo, the Holy Father bid farewell to the mayor and councilmen of the town, located about 30 kilometers (18 miles) southeast of Rome. He referred again to the attacks on the United States. "I continue to pray and invoke the Lord's mercy for the deceased, support and consolation for the survivors, and the precious gift of peace for all humanity," the Pope said.

CHANCELLOR'S CHALLENGE

BY DICK PETERSEN

During the past month I have reflected on the current world situation and found that it offers us a unique insight into assessing our relationship with our God. Unfortunately it also bears out the eternal fight of good versus evil.

We are indeed fortunate to have been given the gift of faith which helps us to know the one, true, loving God. This God is the God of Abraham, Mohammed and Christianity. All of these faiths know the love that our God has for all people, but, as has happened many times over the course of history, currently there are people who have perverted His word for their own opportunities.

Even though the leaders of these groups probably understand the perversion they are promoting, the common people of Afghanistan, Pakistan and the Arab world who are following them, are convinced that they are following the "will of God". They do show a very fervent faith and trust that by following this perversion they are honoring God's will.

We as Christians understand the perversion, we should take time to reflect on our faith. Are we equally as strong in our love of God? Are we ready to show the world His love and mercy as strongly as those who are ready to show the perversion? Are we equally ready to lay down our lives to show His love and mercy to the world?

I feel this is one of the only ways that we can fight this perversion. It is our faith which can shine above the evil and help to erase this evil from our societies.

Many people have said that we face a long and hard struggle. The people we are fighting don't have a particular land or address. So how do we get to these people and defeat the evil they purvey. Our most potent weapon is prayer. Daily Mass, vespers, adoration, the Rosary, Daily prayer, etc. are in our arsenal.

Military action is necessary at the present to protect the innocent, but the reality is if we are to win this long war, prayer is the only effective weapon. The challenge for this month is to pray fervently for the good people of Afghanistan and the Arab world that they may be enlightened through the grace, love and mercy of the one, true God.

ANSWER HIS CALL—MEN'S CONFERENCE
OCTOBER 27, 2001

Seven Brother Knights attended the conference at St. Brendon's, Dublin, Ohio on Saturday, October 27. The testimony of one speaker, Jim Archer, who had the misfortune of two of his children dying of cancer was the highlight. The theme of the speaker was no matter how devastating that was, he and his wife are faithful to the teachings and Christ. What a great lesson in perseverance and how we sometimes complain about our minor troubles forgetting that we are so blessed.

Patriotic Prayer Pin Project

With the assistance of the CCD and SPY programs at Seton Parish over 200 prayer pins with personalized messages were sent to our Nation's Naval Aviators. Thanks to Mary Houze who coordinated the student's patriotic project, these students had an opportunity to write to airmen who are now involved in the military campaign, "Enduring Freedom". Hopefully, those who included their addresses will receive return correspondence, and with that, a greater interest and understanding of the international conflict.

The pins that serve as a reminder of our prayers and support are often placed on the straps of the aviator's flight bags. Many have already found their way to aircraft carriers and land bases in the Mid East.

The second phase of this project involves a request from the aviators who receive these pins to write a message to a veteran. From their perspective this is a way for them to remember "Veterans' Day" and recognize the disabled servicemen who served our country. The plan is to attach prayer pins to these messages and distribute them at the Veterans Hospital.

THANK YOU KNIGHTS

Dear Mr. Joos, Grand Knight and Brother Knights,

Thank you for the offering of a special intention at Mass on Saturday October 6 for departed Knights, to include my husband Robert Krause.

Thank you also, on behalf of widows and families, for the beautifully installed memorial and crabapple tree at the main drive of the church. I noticed it immediately on a night's visit of adoration. Surely you placed it where morning's light will cast brightly on it. I shall remember the occasion of dedication in prayer and spirit at the Shrine of the Blessed Sacrament (that day) in Hanceville, Alabama, as I am unable to attend.

The actions of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Council continue to bring honor to all of its Brothers. With quiet eloquence do you serve one another.

Most Appreciatively,

Mrs. Cecilia Krause
Richard Krause
Diane and Brian Hall
Debra Krause
